The Tenth Annual Intermountain West Student Philosophy Conference
University of Utah

Thursday, March 21st
~ 5:30-7:00 p.m. ~
Plenary
Dustin Stokes
“The Dominance of the Visual”
LNCO Lounge (2110)

Friday, March 22nd
~ 9:00 a.m. ~
Raney Folland
“Doxastic Attitudes Governed by a Principle of Coherence”
Jordan Bohall
“Innocuous Skepticism and Relative Knowledge Attribution”

~ 9:45 a.m. ~
Walter Reid
“Schopenhauer’s Pessimism and the Unconditioned Good: A Nietzschean Response”
Natashia Botelho
“The Structure of the Traumatic Situation”

~ 10:30 a.m. ~
Karolyn Campbell
“Locke’s Polemic Against Innate Principles”
Jon Keyzer
“Semantic Obligations as Limit Hypotheticals”

~ 11:15 a.m. ~
Richard Fry
“Do Non-Human Animals Demonstrate?”
Raymond Avansino
“Fundamental Mind: Consciousness and Physical Reality”

12:00-1:00 Lunch Break

~ 1:00 p.m. ~
Enoch Lambert
“A Partially Pragmatic Species Anti-Essentialism”
Sandra Matsevilo
“On the Power of Fortune on the State of the Soul”

~ 1:45 p.m. ~
Anna Vaughn
“Is Relational Essentialism Really Essentialism?”
Courtney Morris
“Agreeing With Ourselves: Kant’s Critical Method as a Reorientation of Metaphysics”

~ 2:30 p.m. ~
Brandon Bowen
“Utility is Not Satisfaction”
Clayton Alsup,
“In Defense of Dogmatism: An Internalist Account of Cognitive Penetration”

~ 3:30-5:30 p.m. ~
Keynote
Lisa Downing
“Locke and his predecessors on the Status of Secondary Qualities”

Saturday, March 23rd
~ 9:00 a.m. ~
Paul Henne
“Cause By Omission and Norms: What the Folk Tell Us About Omissive Causes”

~ 9:45 a.m. ~
Jimmy Licon
“The Counterpart Argument for Modal Scepticism”

~ 10:30 a.m. ~
Noel Saenz
“Composition and Facts”
Jeffrey Pannekoek
“The Politics of Morality”

~ 11:15 a.m. ~
Ulf Hlobil
“The Normative Significance of Validity”

Unless noted otherwise, talks in the center or in the left column are in the Tanner Library (CTIHB 459). Talks in the right column are in CTIHB 406.