Honors Advanced Course Requirement (Four 5000-level philosophy courses needed)

A minimum of four courses of the total 39 credit hours must come from classes at the 5000-level. The most efficient method of fulfilling this requirement is to take two 3000-level courses from each area and then take a 5000-level course. The remaining course(s) can be taken from your area of interest. This way, you can take fulfill the Advanced Course Requirement as you move through the major area requirements.

Senior Seminar Requirement (need one course)

This course is aimed at advanced majors, but students can take before their senior year. The minimum recommended prerequisites are that students have completed at least one course from each Areas I, II, and III.
*Note the Senior Seminar fulfills the CW.

PHIL 4010 Senior Seminar (CW)

Semester Taken

Elective Requirement (need one philosophy course)

Lower division courses can be used to fulfill this requirement, and it is a great way to take introductory courses for major credit. The following 1000-level courses fulfill the HF requirement: 1000, 1001, 1002, and 1003. 2000-level courses fulfill this requirement as well as additional 3000, 4000, and 5000-level classes.

BREADTH/DEPTH COURSES

Students must complete an additional 21 credit hours of course work. This can be completed through a second major, minor, or certificate program.

/ 21 Hours

Honors Thesis Requirement

PHIL 4999 Honors Thesis

How do I enroll in this course?

- a. Schedule a meeting with the Philosophy Department Honors Faculty Advisor, Anne Peterson, to decide which faculty member conducts research in your area of interest.
- b. Once you have written permission from said faculty member email c.corbett@utah.edu who will send you enrollment information for the course.
